The Troy, N. Y., Times says of Had-pear at the Barre opera house under the auspices of the Boy's club: There was a large attendance last evening at the Hadley moving picture exhibition in Music Hall, which was for the benefit of the Troy Police Beneficial and Protective Association. The Hadley pictures are excellent. The objectionable flickering has been done away with and the entertainment was probably the best and most satisfactory ever seen in this city. The selection of scenes was excellent.

COMMUNITY OF INTEREST.

The Trend Towards One Central Control of the Railroads of the United States.

While it may be true that in the Street and certain other sympathetic quarters, an exaggerated notion has taken root as to the significance and the importance of the entry of Harriman-Union Pacific interests into the directorate of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company—in a way, too, that forecasts control by the former—the interest-compelling fact remains that this latest movement, with others preceding it and others still to come, is bringing about a railroad situation approximately of the same character as that aimed at through the "merger" negotiations of two and three years ago. The latter have been declared illegal by the Supreme Court of the United States. Against actual control through dominating ownership, however, there appears to be no legal obstacle, and the position of the Union Pacific company has become, briefly, this:

Practical domination by it of the transcontinental railroad business in the United States. The Union Pacific already owns the Southern Pacific system. Its control of the Atchison system means three routes to the Pacific coast easily within its direct management. There remains the Hill system on the North—The Great Northern Pacific interests—and even were it to happen that the final settlement of the Northern Securities case gives the Hill companies the advantage in the redistribution of the "unmerged" stocks in controversy, the Union Pacific would still have a large voice and a strong hand in the affairs of the Hill group and at the same time in the St. Paul and the Chicago & Northwestern, not to mention the strong Eastern affiliations; while a flat Harriman victory in the Northern Securities litigation would mean much more. In other words, the two elections to the Santa Fe directorate already come very close to precipitating a railroad situation in which the Harriman interests acquire absolute control of this country's transcontinental transportation.

It remains only to be said that the trend toward one central control in the railroad affairs of the United States —that is, toward a strong community of interest that easily and naturally gives such control—goes steadily forward; and this, too, not in defiance of the Constitution and Federal law, but in spite of them and, in a sense, under their authority and direction. We may not in our day witness efforts at "reforming" the phases of the mooted legislation at Washington; but we shall probably be called upon to note many a new essay at putting back the transportation system of the country, by law, into the conditions of the early nineteenth century.—New York Commercial.

Remaking Playing Cards.

Berlin has started a new industry, says the New York World. Old, stained playing cards, all those slightly discolored which have only been once or twice in use, are collected from hotels, clubs and a hundred other establishments in Germany, Austria, Hungary and Switzerland and are cleaned and made as fresh as new. They are carefully rubbed with benzine on both sides and then, after drying, placed in presses where they are rendered perfectly flat again. They are then sprinkled over with powdered white lead and placed in a warm press, where they receive the finish and shine lost in the fingers of the players. They then find their way into another press, where the edges are carefully cut. Before being put on the market they undergo, each card separately, a careful revision to see that they are all "as good as new."

A Misnomer.
Sir Isaac Newton was not a smoker, although he had the reputation of the "smoking philosopher." He did not use tobacco in any form.

Agonizing Burns

are instantly relieved and perfectly healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C.
Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee so dreadfully that it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. Price 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store, Barre.

Keep Thinking About It.

Cough Syrups that are constipating leave the stomach and bowels in a dangerous condition. A cough syrup that is a laxative is sure to give better results. Lix-all is a laxative, and if it fails to cure your cough or cold we will pay back your money.

HARDWICK LIGHTED AGAIN.

Business Firms Get Power and are Able to Resume Work.

Hardwick, Feb. 11.—The Daniels Electric Co. has connected with the town electric lights and for the first time in many months the residents of this place are enjoying good electric lights. The village power has been shut off to allow repairs in the new dam. T.
T. Daniels has had a gang of men working on his penstock both day and night for the past ten days thawing the ice and had used every thing in thawing the big pipe.

He has burned his winter's supply of slabs and has used nearly 100 gallons of gasoline in his rush to get his plant into running condition.

His son, Carl Daniels, worked both day and night at the plant until he was forced to go home from exhaustion and was again at work after a few hours' sleep.

On account of this shut-down at the electric plant the firms of Oclair, Wallace, the American Granite Co., the polishing mills, Sullivan, and F. T. Russell's big feed store were all obliged to suspend operations until power could be furnished them. These firms have all resumed work.

Death of Dudley C. Denison.

Dudley Chase Denison, an ex-member of Congress, and one of the most prominent lawyers in the state, is dead at his home at South Royalton after a long illness. He was born in Royalton, Sept. 13, 1819, and at the age of 20 took up the study of law. He was elected to the state senate in 1853 and to the house in 1861-3-5.

Mr. Denison was U. S. district attorney at the time of the Fenian raid on Canada, and it was he who had charge of the indictments against Gen.
O'Neil and others.

In 1873 Mr. Denison was elected to Congress. After serving his term he retired from public life.

He is survived by four children, Joseph, an attorney of Randolph; John, a lawyer of Denver, Colo.; Lucy Denison of Elder, Colo.; and Gertrude of Royalton.
